

GQ The Bulletin HA April 2018

News about people...

Rachel is now in Summerhill in Kendal, and will not be coming home to Gatesbield. She would welcome anyone who wanted to pop in and say hello, she is in the Windermere Suite.

Alice is in Lunesdale House near Milnthorpe and appears to be doing well.

Easter Monday Concert 2pm

Prokofiev, Violin Concerto No. 1 -
Leonidas Kavakos, Valery Gergiev
Mariinsky Theatre Orchestra

The Moscow Easter Festival is held annually, starting on Easter Sunday (according to the historical Julian calendar).

The 2012 festival was dedicated to the music of Sergei Prokofiev. The Mariinsky Orchestra, which has been led by Gergiev for over 20-years, has a unparalleled reputation in Russian repertoire, performing the composer's symphonies, concertos and operas regularly around the world.

A word from the Editor....

Many of you are aware I was off sick for a week or so recently. Unfortunately I have a not too serious health issue which needs some attention. For this reason, I will be on sick leave again for a wee while. I am so grateful to Gatesbield staff members who have been so supportive in providing cover while I am off, and to the Board members who have made sure I take good advice.

Our thoughts are very much with Janet at the moment as she prepares for her hip surgery, we wish Janet well and a speedy recovery!
Thanks again to our temporary Cooks, Nick, Paula and Fiona!

Best Wishes

Andree
