

Further step on the Government's 'roadmap' out of lockdown

12th April

What has changed? STEP 2—From Monday 12th April

Some more important changes come into effect on 12th April. All shops can now open. Hairdressers, libraries and outdoor attractions can re-open. Pubs, cafes and restaurants are now allowed to serve outdoors. You are now allowed to stay overnight away from home (e.g. in self catering accommodation), but only with other members of your household or support bubble.

At Gatesbield, the main change is that the Guest Room can be booked as normal, but remember that your visitors may only enter your flat if they are in your support bubble or are providing you with care or support—you can, however meet them outside providing you maintain social distancing. Tenants continue to be able to meet five other tenants (or other people) in the garden (or other outdoor public space, or a private garden) to socialise. You should continue to observe 2m/6ft social distancing.
